BALI

Bali is the most popular tourist destination in Indonesia. It is regularly rated as one of the best travel destinations in the world by travel magazines, websites, and review portals. Bali offers an all-in-one experience. A perfect combination of nature, activities, culture, cuisine, and people. Bali has been acknowledged by many as one of the best destinations to travel to.

Bali offers a wide range of hotels, villas, and resorts. You can find beautiful beaches in places like Sanur, Nusa Dua, Seminyak, and Jimbaran. Whereas in Ubud, you can learn about culture and arts, along with beautiful rice terraces. Explore North Bali, where there is a bunch of hidden waterfalls and other untouched nature. Visit Bali National Park, just near the Gilimanuk Harbor. Have a serene time and visit coffee plantations and other non-touristic sites in West Bali.

Bali is also famous for its world-class diving sites. Experience diving in Nusa Penida, Nusa Lembongan, Tulamben, or Padang Bai. There you can find a diversity of fishes, corals, and other underwater creatures. A few highlights of diving in Bali are you are able to see Manta Rays, Mola Mola, and dive in the USS Liberty Wreck, which only rests at 40 meters in depth. Hike and see the beautiful sunrise on Mount Agung, or get challenged by hiking the highest mountain in Bali, Mount Agung.

With 87% of the majority of people in Bali holding Hinduism as their belief, there are lots of temples that can be explored around Bali.

We can create customized Bali tours according to your preference.

MOUNT RINJANI TREKKING

Mount Rinjani Trekking Package, explore the active volcano located on Lombok island. It can easily be reached by plane within 25 minutes from Bali and by speed boat for 2-2.5 hours.

Stands at 3726m and making it the second-highest volcano in Indonesia, Mount Rinjani trekking is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Lombok. People usually do 2 days and 1-night trips to reach and enjoy the summit. However, you can choose to get a longer trip to take your time and enjoy more of what's inside Mount Rinjani. The experience of enjoying sunset and sunrise with a beautiful view from Mount Rinjani is one you shouldn't miss out on.

On the summit of Rinjani, you can see beautiful scenery and a volcanic crater called Segara Anak. With a large of 1.100 hectares and a depth of 190m, Segara Anak is also known as a local's popular fishing spot. In 1985, the government started breeding fish in the lake. This lake is approximately 2,000 meters (6,600 ft) above sea level and is estimated to be about 200 meters (660 ft) deep. The other amazing thing you can enjoy here is the hot springs from the caldera. After tiring trekking, soaking your tired body in a natural hot spring will make you feel better and relaxed.

Indonesia is home to 147 volcanoes and around 76 of these volcanoes are active ones. These volcanoes are also spread on the islands of Java, Lesser Sunda, Sulawesi, and Sumatra.

ADVENTURE INDONESIA organizes volcano trekking such as; Semeru, Kerinci, Arjuno Welirang, Bromo, Ijen, Gede Pangrango, Batur, Agung, and Carstensz Pyramid.

DAYAK KUBUNG

Borneo is famous for the Dayak tribe. This indigenous tribe of Borneo has unique culture and customs compared to the Indonesians whom you usually see in cities. It is suggested that you attend the Dayak festival that is held annually.

Dayak Tribe Borneo at Kubung Village is located more or less 300 km away from Pangkalan Bun or more or less about 4 – 5 hours drive by car. This village has a “sister village” called Sekombulan Village and is about 5 km away from the border of West Kalimantan and Central Kalimantan Province. This village belongs to Dayak Tumon and they believe in Hindu Kaharingan while some already being Christian, Catholic, as well as Muslim.

This Dayak tribe’s village is so unique due to this both Kubung Village and Sekombulan Village are the LAST FRONTIER village that defends their tropical rainforest strongly against Palm Oil Plantation surroundings their village. Both villages have a big commitment to protect their jungle against deforestation due to the palm oil plantation. Here comes our chance to help the local people by supporting and giving them the courage in order to protect their tropical rainforest and our world. Support from many countries will make this tropical rainforest last longer.

JAKARTA

As the capital city of Indonesia, Jakarta is a huge, metropolitan city. It is a hive of activity, a buzzing city and it's full of people! This will be the first thing you notice in the city, especially with all the traffic in Jakarta. Though, regardless of traffic, there's a heap of the best things to do in Jakarta that are well worth a gander if you're visiting for a few days. This sprawling exciting city is the hyper-center of Indonesia and absolutely worth taking time to explore when in the area. There is a wide range of attractions to enjoy from quirky museums to a variety of national monuments, government areas, and business districts.

Jakarta is also a great place to learn more about Indonesia's complicated history, and you can visit a variety of culturally and historically significant locations such as the old town and the port which will give you a glimpse of how the city would have looked in past times.

Have a visit to Fatahillah Jakarta History Museum, Wayang Museum, Museum Gajah, Museum of Fine Arts & Ceramics, Sunda Kelapa Sea Port, Planetarium, Bank Indonesia Museum, Textile Museum, Jakarta Cathedral, Isitqlal Mosque, National Monument, and many others. As well as harking back to the days of old, Jakarta is one of the most modern cities in Indonesia, and you can spend time embracing this cutting-edge side of the city at its famous malls, bars, and restaurants. Jakarta is also known as one of the cities that own big shopping malls, for those who want to go shopping it is a good place to visit.

Have a serene time, ride a speedboat from Jakarta and you can visit the Thousand Islands. It is known for great beaches, snorkeling, diving, and a short nature getaway for those who get no time to visit Bali.

JAKARTA NEARBY

With a few hour drive from Jakarta, there are lots of destinations and activities that can be done. Drive around 6 hours from Jakarta and you can visit Ujung Kulon National Park. Here, in the western part of the island of Java, you can meet the endangered species, the Javanese Rhino. Cross the island of Java and you can visit Krakatoa. A caldera in the Sunda Strait between the islands of Java and Sumatra. Krakatoa is known as the most famous volcanic eruption in history. Drive for 4-5 hours, you can meet the people of Baduy. An indigenous Sundanese ethnic group native to the southeastern part of Banten.

For those who love to have another thrilling adventure, hiking Mount Gede can be one of the options. Located in West Java, around 2 hours drive from Jakarta, you will reach the starting point of the Mount Gede hiking trip. As it is one of the most famous mountains in the area, we suggest you do trekking on weekdays instead of weekends.

On the foot of Mount Gede, you can visit Bodogol Nature Reserve. Walk deep into the jungle of Bodogol, walk on the canopy bridge, and observe the rich diversity of flora and fauna life of the park. The park is home to the Javan eagle, Javan gibbon, Lutung, etc.

There is also a big waterfall that offers a nice wash-up after the tiring walk on this day. Have about 2 hour trip under the thickness of the jungle in the afternoon today. A good place to camp.

From Jakarta, you can combine your tour with visiting Bogor Botanical Garden, Tea Plantation, and Taman Safari in Puncak, or continue your trip to Bandung.

PAPUA - BALIEM

We will take you to experience an exciting adventure by exploring the Baliem Valley and the unique, primitive traditions and way of life of the tribes who live in the valley.

Baliem Valley Trekking is one of the highlight activities while visiting Papua. Get a chance to trek down the beautiful countryside of Papua. Drive 40 minutes from Wamena and you will arrive at Sogokmo Village, the Baliem Valley trekking starting point. Baliem Valley trekking scenery is incredibly beautiful. Explore the traditional Papuan tribe, small villages and local people working in the field while trekking down the valley.

Dani is one of the largest tribal groups living both in the southern and northern Baliem Valley. They are scattered all the way from the hilly terrain and the flat land in the valley. They still live traditionally. One of their uniqueness is their round shape house, built from wood and grass. Their main source of livelihood is sweet potato planting and pig raising. They also still practice their old traditional way of living. The wooden spear, wooden ax, bone knife, and bamboo arrow are still used daily. It shows by their clothes too. The man of Dani wears only a penis gourd, while the woman wears a grass skirt. However, with the modern influence, some young people living near Wamena have worn T-shirts.

There is a big festival every August, in the Baliem Valley. By attending the massive Baliem Valley Festival, visitors will have a rare chance to learn and experience first-hand the different traditions of each tribe participating in the festival without having to make the difficult trek to their compounds deep in the hinterland of West Papua. All you need to do during the festival is just observe and enjoy the mock war. It's a lifetime experience not to be missed.
